Make Up Trend AW 2019 (October, 2019)

Make up trend for autumn/winter 2019 is coming now. For this season, the make up look creates with warm orange and pink shades that were in trend during the summer of 2019, and that will be in trend also for autumn/winter season. These 2 color shades are suitable for every woman. From autumn/winter 2019 catwalks, many fashion brands design the beauty look such as softer smoky eyes to red lips, natural flush blush, graphic shapes eyeliner, neon flashes and glitter make up too. Here are 5 key looks for this season, let's check!

1. Fresh Skin: A natural-looking glow and definitely no harsh lines of contour.
2. Classic Red Lip: The red lip is a classic that will never go out of fashion.
3. Extreme Winged Black Liner: The liner was only applied on the top lash line and outer corner of the lower lash line, with the rest of the makeup pared down, so the focus really was on the eyes.
4. Youthful Brows: Brows were slightly darkened, but they still looked soft and not overly arched.
